Make Extra Money for the Holidays

Palmyra, VA - While experts report that the recession is over, the reality of that has not reached most families who are still struggling to make ends meet. With the holiday season looming, they're wondering how they are going to afford the additional expense of travel and gifts.

Now more than ever people are looking for ways to survive the times and are worried about the additional expense of the holidays. Many families turn to a second job or search work-at-home opportunities online and as a result miss the money that is sitting in their homes. These families have several hundred even thousands of dollars worth of stuff cluttering their homes. Books, clothes, toys, homemade goods, old cell phones, sports equipment, jewelry and even unused gift cards can all be sold online.

Most people are aware of resources such as eBay or Craigslist for selling their used items, but there are many places such as Amazon, Etsy, Gazelle, Second Spin, Play It Again Sports and more where extra cash can be made. These sites won't make people rich, but a few bucks for an old cell phone or DVD is better than nothing and can add up when selling a collection of items. Further, the holidays are one of the best times to sell used items because people are in a buying mode, but they want to be frugal as well. As a result they're looking for quality used items as gifts.

Leslie Truex, author of The Work-At-Home Success Bible offers solutions to busy families needing extra money to afford the holiday season.
